Tell Me Why

The Four Seasons prints are a series of paintings that celebrate people, nature, and life. Each painting in the series reflects one of the four seasons and all are loosely named after popular camp songs I enjoyed as a child. As a youngster I had the privilege of attending summer camp at Pilgrim Heights Camp & Retreat Center located near Montour, IA. Anyone who has ever experienced the joy of camp understands the importance of camping opportunities in the lives of people of all ages!
